

Productivity Places Program

(a joint Commonwealth and Queensland Government Initiative)

Certificate III in Aged Care - Job Seeker information

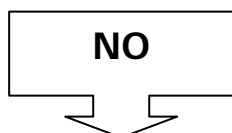

Dear Prospective student,

You may be eligible for free training! The Australian Government's Productivity Places Program (PPP) offers free training for eligible applicants. The Program is a great way to improve your skills so you can find employment in a skills-short industry.

The Program's website <http://www.training.qld.gov.au/industry/ppp/index.html> contains detailed information. Plus, you can contact Training Queensland on 1300 369 935.

Are you eligible?

- ⇒ Are you an apprentice or trainee, full-time student or secondary school student, or self-employed person?

You are not eligible for free training under PPP at this time.

- ⇒ Are you residing in Queensland and an Australian citizen, or permanent resident of Australia; or an humanitarian refugee?

You are not eligible for free training under PPP at this time.

- ⇒ Are you one of the following?

- registered with an Employment Service Provider, Access Provider or are you a Community Development Employment Projects (CDEP) participant, or
- an income support recipient who is not currently required to meet activity test or participation requirements; or
- not currently working and seeking or intending to seek paid employment or self employment after completing the qualification; or
- not working and participating in volunteering activities: or
- a person aged 15 - 19 years working up to 15 hours per week.

1. Obtain a Referral Form from your Provider (if applicable).
2. Register to attend an Information Session (this is mandatory to be considered for a place on our next course):
Royal College of Healthcare
Email: info@royalcollege.com.au
Phone: 07 3355 6168

1. You are not eligible for free training under PPP at this time.
2. You can enrol as a regular student, using the Enrolment Guide enclosed or by enrolling online at www.royalcollege.com.au.
3. Go to our website www.royalcollege.com.au and sign up for our newsletter so we can keep you informed of developments.

Effective as of 1 April 2011.

Subject to change without notice. Places are subject to Government funding allocation and policy.